

The National Human Trafficking and Disabilities Working Group

2017 Membership Guidelines

To ensure solid collaboration that adequately represents the National Human Trafficking & Disabilities (NHTD) Working Group client base and best practices, it is imperative that Members feel open, secure and confident to discuss new ideas, collaborative strategies, and legal and social service provisions. Therefore, all Members shall agree to follow confidentiality provisions in all communication between Members.

Confidentiality

- All correspondence sent or received through the National Human Trafficking & Disabilities Working Group communication platforms (email, discussion forums, conference calls, etc.) are only intended for the professional use of NHTD Working Group Member Organizations.
- Only communications clearly designated as approved for distribution outside of the National Human Trafficking & Disabilities Working Group Membership may be forwarded and shared. These communications should be marked with statements such as, "Please Forward Widely" or "Please Forward Outside of the Working Group". All correspondence not given this designation are confidential and are only to be forwarded within the NHTD Working Group Membership without express permission from the author.

Guiding Principles

- Please show respect and courtesy to all Members. Any defamatory, abusive, profane, threatening, offensive, illegal, or otherwise inappropriate information or remarks will not be tolerated.
- Please refrain from posting any information or other material protected by copyright without the permission of the copyright owner. Do not post any information or other material that constitutes or could reasonably be construed as constituting advertising, marketing, solicitation of business, vending, attempting to sell or promote products or services, or otherwise engaging in or attempting to consummate commercial or professional transactions. , Correspondence should contribute to the collaborative spirit in contributing to the advancement of education and awareness in topic of human trafficking and disabilities. Please refrain from posting any materials that may detract from these collaborative efforts that may focus on a personal or political agenda.

Representation

- Public identification as an NHTD Working Group Member is permitted and encouraged while membership guidelines expressed herein.

Name

Title

Signature

Date

Please email signed NHTDWG Membership Agreement to: NHTDWG@iofa.org